

School Job Network

Privacy Statement

School Job Vacancies

We hold the following information about schools:

- general email address (ie. office@ or headteacher@)
- postal address
- telephone number
- the name of the headteacher

This information is generally publically available on school websites.

Where we have email addresses which contain the specific name of the headteacher or member of the administrative team then this will be the email we were provided with or was put onto the site by the subscriber. This email address can be removed by the subscriber or we remove it when requested.

Schools can opt out of receiving information and marketing materials at any point and their details are then deleted from our system.

Profiles Section

The profile section of the website is fully automated. This means that any member of the public that wishes to place a profile on the site enters their personal details into our database and deletes their information as appropriate. The personal information they store on our site is not available to the general public. Any contact with an account holder in the profiles section communications with them via the website.

Account holders accounts are deleted by us on request.
